Q1 2026 Fund Commentary

Commentary and opinions are provided by Acadian Asset Management LLC.

Market commentary

The first quarter of 2026 started with heightened volatility across global equity markets. Geopolitical tensions escalated in late February when conflict broke out in the Middle East, disrupting energy supply through the Strait of Hormuz and pushing oil prices sharply higher. The energy sector led, while software and technology companies came under pressure.

Performance

Within the U.S. equity sleeve, selection within the consumer discretionary sector, and overweight allocation and selection within the industrials sector, contributed to performance. Within the international equity sleeve, selection within the consumer discretionary and health care sectors contributed to performance. Within the Canadian equity sleeve, an underweight allocation to the information technology sector contributed to performance.

Wabtec Corp. contributed to performance after reporting strong freight rail results, including 18% revenue growth, double-digit earnings-per-share growth and a 24% dividend increase. Merck & Co. Inc. contributed to performance because fiscal year 2025 results came in ahead of expectations. Applied Materials Inc. contributed to performance because of strong quarterly results and increased forward guidance, supported by broad-based semiconductor equipment demand.

Within the U.S. equity sleeve, a zero-weight allocation to the energy sector and selection within the consumer staples sector detracted from performance. Within the international equity sleeve, selection within the industrials and information technology sectors detracted from performance. Within the Canadian equity sleeve, an underweight allocation to the energy sector detracted from performance.

Gen Digital Inc. detracted from performance because of growing concerns that artificial intelligence could disrupt the consumer software industry. Qualcomm Inc. detracted from performance because of a weaker near-term handset outlook, although the sub-advisor believes the company's automotive segment continues to grow and a data centre opportunity could emerge by 2027. Amdocs Ltd. detracted from performance because of revenue issues and the announced retirement of the company's CEO. The sub-advisor noted that contract renewal rates remain at roughly 100%.

Portfolio activity

The sub-advisor added Gildan Activewear Inc., Union Pacific Corp., Sysco Corp., Wells Fargo & Co., Becton Dickinson and Co., Marsh & McLennan Companies Inc. and Danone S.A. during the quarter. The sub-advisor also increased The Magnum Ice Cream Co., Euronext N.V., Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corp., Boyd Group Services Inc., Brookfield Asset Management Ltd., Canadian Apartment Properties Real Estate Investment Trust, Colliers International Group Inc., Element Fleet Management Corp., NetApp Inc., Amdocs Ltd., Qualcomm Inc. and Elevance Health Inc.

The sub-advisor sold Harley-Davidson Inc., Campbell's Co. and Versant Media Inc. The sub-advisor also reduced Bank of Montreal, Canadian Natural Resources Ltd., Franco-Nevada Corp., Nutrien Ltd., TC Energy Corp., Amgen Inc., Heidelberg Materials AG, Shionogi & Co. Ltd., DBS Group Holdings Ltd., GSK plc, SMC Corp., RB Global Inc., Kimberly-Clark Corp., Applied Materials Inc., Omnicom Group Inc., Merck & Co. Inc., Ameriprise Financial Inc., Gen Digital Inc., American Express Co., The Carlyle Group Inc., Chubb Ltd., Konecranes Oyj and Infineon Technologies AG.

Outlook

The sub-advisor maintains moderate performance expectations given ongoing geopolitical and trade uncertainties. Commodity prices may remain supportive for the Canadian market in the near term. The sub-advisor continues to apply a long-term, bottom-up value framework, patiently waiting for dislocations to add to high-quality businesses at attractive valuations. The sub-advisor believes the Fund's portfolio of defensive, high-quality businesses may provide resilience through uncertain market conditions.
