Q3 2025 Fund Commentary

Market commentary

EAFFE equities delivered gains, with the MSCI EAFE Index up 6.8% (in Canadian dollar terms). In Europe, banks were the strongest performers, driven by both a steepening yield curve and expectations for higher government fiscal spending. In Asia, Japanese equities rose in September, led by companies that benefit from spending related to artificial intelligence.

Performance

The Fund's relative exposure to Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd., CRH PLC and Legrand SA contributed to performance. Relative exposure to Deutsche Boerse AG, Demant AS and Alcon Inc. detracted from performance.

At the sector level, stock selection in information technology and materials contributed to performance. Overweight exposure to health care and underweight exposure to financials detracted from performance.

Portfolio activity

The sub-advisor added STERIS PLC and sold GSK PLC during the quarter.

Outlook

The sub-advisor looks to invest in attractively valued companies and is not driven by macroeconomic events. The sub-advisor doesn't include any macroeconomic forecasting in the search or selection process.
